Blind on Steam Blind is a narrative-driven psychological thriller for virtual reality where the player is blind and must explore their surroundings using echolocation. Waking up in a strange room with little memory of how she came to be there, a young woman makes the shocking discovery she has lost her sense of sight. Goaded by the sinister and twisted Warden, she must explore a perverse and frightening mansion using sound alone. By sending out soundwaves with a cane, the outlines of objects are briefly revealed, enabling the player to navigate the mansion, solve puzzles and uncover the mystery of what is happening to her. As she gets closer and closer to the truth, however, she will be forced to confront her worst enemy--that which she does not, or will not see. Born out of the Global Game Jam in 2014, which had the theme of We dont see things as they are, we see them as we are, the Blind team won the Best Game award at the Turin (Italy) jam site with their entry Come to See My House. The team then began work on a full game based on this initial concept. Built from the ground up for

What's new:

Medal The Little Walker Medal () is the oldest sports award in Ukraine, granted since 1913 by the Union of Ukrainian Students in Germany (, UUKSG) "for achievements in the development of the sports movement of the Ukrainian students in Germany". It is awarded annually for outstanding achievements in football, wrestling, cycling, tennis, or futsal. History Yuri Berezovsky was first given the "Little Garden" () award in 1913, for his achievements in football, although there was not yet an independent Ukrainian Student Union in Germany. In 1921, there was a significant increase of the number of participants in the games, and to secure this, the Union of Ukrainian Students in Germany (the UUKSG) created the first post of the "Director of the Student Games". During the Nazi occupation, German football was not played and organized sports were banned. Despite this, the "Little Garden" was awarded to the best players of the students during this period. History of the Little Walker Medal In 1927, the first official award ceremony was held, which featured Ukrainian footballer Volodymyr Rudenko as a recipient. The name

"Little Garden" is believed to have been inspired by the title "Little Russian". Winners by sport History of the Winners Football While there was no official trophy in the first years of the award, in 1931, it was decided that for the time being, the trophy would be annually awarded, to the most outstanding players of the competition. The same year, on 19 December, the presentation of the first trophy was held with Joseph Rowinski. It was not until 1938 that the trophy was actually made, which was awarded annually in German to the best footballer of the competition until 1945. The official name was "Goldener Svjatoj", after the paper Samoobronni Ukraïni (Samobor, a city on the border with Croatia). 1947 Prize in the new Soviet Union In the period from the early 1960s to the early 1990s, the tournament was called the Golden ball of the Green Wheel (, Zolonna Wyrubla), named after the Soviet national football team. It remains to this day, the only time at which the award could be taken away from the winner and given to the runner-up. In the Soviet Union, the best players of Ukraine, Belarus, the Baltic countries and the Moldovans from the Soviet
