When I was a child, my favorite things were Thundercats. I'd had the first three seasons of the show on DVD (stashed away on a shelf above my bed at 2-in-the-morning, where I'd settled down for a space-out while yearning for summer days over the white noise of my hometown's laundromat) for over a decade now, and I still adore the show.

If you grew up in the '80s and can't understand why I get slightly teary-eyed just thinking about the kids I grew up with, you can stop reading right now and never look back. Or, you can keep reading and I'll ask you some questions and you can make your own mind up about whether my memories are justified. I've only brought up the Thundercats stuff because this game and the
