Garbha Personality Garbha is a proud, pretty and anothetically beautiful woman who wants for nothing; nor does she expect anything from the men in her life. However as she comes to realize that she no longer wants the grave life of a bound priestess, she does not hesitate to throw herself into the arms of a wealthy man so she can live her life to the fullest. Appearance Garbha is considered to be stunning. She is a woman with kind of a deep bubbly voice and well proportioned chest with slim waist. Her eyes color is a deep yellow, but she painted them black to make her look older. Basically, she wants for nothing, but living life to the fullest is a constant prayer and normality. Maneuverability: Garbha is a fairly quick to fight in most circumstances and she has decent ways to defend herself. Elements in her possession are the only thing that is problematic. While her magic is based around the "Azan" system in Ashige faith, she can use D.E. providing she wishes to when used. The fact that she has her forearm tattoos after all her Magickal recovery acts meant she would be resistant to Magick use on them. The fact that her body has formed around the holy symbol drawn on her chest means to Garbha, the more it turns into a skeletal version of the blest breast, the more pure of a priestess she is. However, she can't use the sacred Magick spread around her. She can use the blessed Magick or holy Magick spread around her body when she has vengeance. It makes her immune against Flame Witches and Draculinc Knights or the like. Background Goddess Garbha, lover, but not lover: The quintessential beautiful woman living her life to the fullest. Garbha was a religious girl going on forty whom was taught by her father in the ways of the Religion of Ashige. To that end, she
