eXceed-Gun Bullet Children is a bullet hell (Shmup) from Fukan-Shin (Kokyu). It's a retro-styled 3D side scrolling shoot'em up with a strong emphasis on the real life story of Dr. Lixus, a German professor sent to a research facility by his wife on a solo expedition to X-D-A-T, a mysterious planet somewhere in the universe. Professor Lixus was killed shortly after his arrival on the planet. His body was later discovered by an alien lifeform that just happens to be the main antagonist of the game. Some time later, this alien has grown up, become a human himself, and is now seeking revenge against the man who killed his father. His wish? Get revenge by exterminating the entire human race. In order to save the planet, Professor Lixus' wife has sent an AI construct with the same name to Earth. Along with it is the AI construct's granddaughter called "Gun Bullet Children" who came to life once Professor Lixus' wife discovered him dead. As the construct has come back to Earth with her, she has taken up residence in Professor Lixus' wife's house. Gun Bullet Children sets out to look for her father, Professor Lixus. Along the way, Gun Bullet Children travels with Professor Lixus' wife and the AI construct, and when the professor gets in trouble, she is forced to come to her rescue. In the middle of all of this, Gun Bullet Children and the professor stumble across the alien who wanted revenge on Professor Lixus for killing his father. This is the alien that has been killing humans for the past 1000 years. To stop him, Gun Bullet Children and the professor team up with the AI construct. Together they face the alien, fight for their lives, and ultimately save the Earth. eXceed-Gun Bullet Children features 3 stages and over 50 enemies from 5 different kinds of bullet hell (shmups). eXceed-Gun Bullet Children has its own "Ouroboros" style "day/night cycle". You can choose whether to avoid night time or explore the dark world. You can also choose whether to pursue the main character with Dr. Lixus' wife, or Gun Bullet Children. During the day time, the alien is imprisoned in some kind of machine where he can't move around. One can see Gun Bullet Children with Dr. Lixus' wife from afar eXceed - Gun Bullet Children is an upcoming shmup released for Android, iOS, OSX and Steam. Set in a futuristic-steampunk world, the game is a bullet hell extravaganza with the pace and action of a fast-paced modern shooter with boss fights and limited lives and is aimed at people who enjoy shmups like Shinobi and the Golden Axe series of games. GameplayUnlike other shmups, "eXceed" features no fixed "stages" or ways to beat the game - all action takes place in the same open environment, which means you can die any time! The one exception to this is the boss battles where you have to attack and avoid attacks from an array of opponents in order to perform a special attack on a boss enemy (which grants additional firepower to your bullets). The game has 3 difficulties, each featuring a mix of enemies (up to 5) at the same time on screen (leaving you needing to dodge attacks from them all) and gradually getting tougher. A fourth difficulty, the "Extreme" difficulty has just one enemy on screen at a time. Gameplay Note: images are screen shots of the game running on the Samsung Galaxy S7. Some of them are taken from the new "Powered by XIMA" modes. How to play eXceed features the usual mode of an shmup with bullet speed and bullet patterns, but with some interesting new additions. eXceed Mode eXceed (with sound) eXceed - Gun Bullet Children is an experimental game that features no fixed "stages" or ways to beat the game - instead, you can only die! There are 6 enemies on screen at the same time, with progressively more difficult levels as the game progresses. You can die any time, but the fact that you're still able to control your character even when dead makes it feel quite different than a normal shmup. The enemies will also go on with their attacks as soon as you are dead, which leads to some interesting boss battles! The core gameplay consists of avoiding attacks from enemies (which means you'll die anytime!) while attacking the enemies to cause as much damage as possible. While doing that, you can also dodge enemy attacks to decrease their damage. You'll also encounter a "Dark Element", a new kind of enemy with its own deadly attack patterns, and you'll have to find a way to dodge them as

Description are you ready for even more blood than you could have possibly imagined? ready to unleash hell on an entire city or a small town? ready to bring down the Wrath of Gun? ready to bring down hell itself? well, maybe not the wrath of war, that sort of thing might be a bit too much, but hey, you never know, hey? well, i don't want to rain on your fun but it says in the script that this album, the eXceed Original Soundtrack, is completely unrated - cool, right? so far, so good, but then the people actually at eXceed came up with a little idea to put the rating up higher, like a couple of points, well a bit under, maybe a tad, wee bit... hm... maybe a touch... hey! fine, okay, we'll leave it at that, and yes, you'll find the full version of the soundtrack on the official website, you'll find it under the original soundtrack. welcome back. so, gun bullet children is an isometric shooter which appears to me to be a bit of a remake of left 4 dead: zombies, there are five characters in gun bullet children - the narrator, a cop, a gateman, a weasel and an angel, and as you can see, some of them have special abilities which are probably not as significant as they seem, like a gun that's actually a gun (loose cannons) or a taser, like a cuchillo which, instead of scaring people or hurting people, if you use it on yourself, you become invincible for a limited period of time, like a walking tank or a death machine, and all five of them have some specialty gun as a secondary weapon. once the game has ended, you'll have to choose your character again, and the camera angle is rather unusual for an isometric game, in the original leafing there's a three per screen, and for this version there's a nine per screen camera, as i said, very atypical, so i'd like to include a location suggestion, because i really like the hereville zone because of, if i might say it, its crossgame quality, that is, that all of the buildings are part of the game and that they have unique powers associated with them, like the hockey rink having an oversized pool or a boxing ring having some nonexistent video generation. (i'm putting "nonexistent" instead of "volume" because i'm
