He graduated from the University of Miami in 2001 and earned his bachelor's degree in Journalism & Communications from Emerson College in 2005. Armed with a retort guaranteed to get fans riled up during a news conference or game: "I'll never be like this." Mets third baseman David Wright was asked the question at the start of the national anthem on Monday, and he probably doesn't mind having a podium stand-in during their most emotional moments. Still, he said he'd never use the phrase himself. NBC Sport has suspended the broadcast of the Women's World Cup final for an hour as a pre-emptive move in the event a terrorist attack occurs. NBC Sports President Dick Ebersol told USA TODAY Sports he had no other choice but to suspend the coverage, which will be shown beginning at 6 a.m. ET today. Rookie Jarrod Kelenic has already earned a promotion to Double-A Trenton and is the top-ranked prospect in the organization, according to MLB Pipeline. Along with his impressive 2017 debut for the Eastern League's Trenton Thunder, the No. 1 overall pick showed well against big league batters last year, slashing .266/.318/.434 with 28 home runs and 19 steals in 121 games. One of the best things about sports is the fact that it can bring people together in a way that few other areas of
