Oh! Zexal World Championship 2012 NDS ROM .A flying "UFO" was spotted over Argyle's Green Square area on Sunday. It was described as being a large, bright light in the sky. It was also reported that a loud noise like the sound of a crash was heard by a woman standing near the square. The object was flying in a horizontal direction and was first spotted by her son. Maurice Taylor, who witnessed the object, had never seen anything like it before. He said: "At about 1.30pm this afternoon, I saw a bright light in the sky.

It was stationary in the east direction, going north-east. "It was also flashing a number of coloured lights and seemed to have a luminous centre. "It was actually flying towards me, and the light was about the same brightness as the sun. "I could see a person at the back who was on a bicycle.

"But it was unlike anything I have seen before and I just thought 'that's odd'." Mr Taylor added: "I saw the light for about 20 seconds. "When I went to take a photograph of it I realised how big it was and stopped. "I could clearly see it had a luminous centre and the light was not circular."Ototoxicity in children with suspected childhood cancer who receive chemotherapy. To assess whether children with cancer receive ototoxic chemotherapy, and to determine who is more susceptible to ototoxicity, we performed comprehensive hearing screening of 76 children in the outpatient clinic of the National Institute of Clinical Oncology (Niguarda ca. 220, Milan, Italy) by a single experienced audiologist to detect potential ototoxic effects of cisplatin or other antimicrobial combinations. These results were then validated in a separate group of 50 children with childhood cancer and in a control group of 50 age- and sex-matched healthy children. The incidence
